

Senior Center of York's 2004 Christmas Dinner
Dance To Be Held December 11

Yorktown, November 22—All York County seniors 50 years or older are invited to the Seniors' 2004 Christmas Dinner Dance being held on Saturday, December 11 from 5 to 8 p.m. at Grafton High School. Singles and couples are welcome. Door prizes will be awarded and a local DJ will spin the tunes.

Although admission is free, tickets are required for entrance to the dance. Seating is limited, so reservations are required. Tickets may be obtained at the Senior Center of York, located in Washington Square Shopping Center. Registration ends Tuesday, November 30.

Partygoers are asked to bring non-perishable goods, which will be given to the York County "Food Closet." Contributed items will be collected at the door.

This Christmas Dinner Dance is sponsored by the Senior Center of York, York County Board of Supervisors, York County School Board, and the Peninsula Agency of Aging. For more information about the Seniors' Christmas Dinner Dance, call the Senior Center of York at 898-3807.
